Announcements on City-Related Issues and Concerns

Commissioner Kulick announced that trick-or-treating will be observed on Saturday, October 31 from 6 – 8 p.m. He reminded residents that leaf pick-up is taking place and asked that they please try to keep parked cars off the streets. Finally, he reminded voters that the election is November 3 and that absentee ballots are available at the City Clerk’s office until 4 p.m. Monday, November 2.

Commissioner Ling would like staff to track PEAK attendance next year to see if raising tuition decreases participation. She announced that the International Relations Council will hold their annual banquet at 7:00 p.m. on November 6 at the University Center – tickets are still available.

Manager Ridley announced that the press release for the 1st Annual Citizen’s Academy went out today. More information is available online.

Public Comment on Agenda and Non-Agenda Items

Richard Swindlehurst, 700 N. Isabella, thanked all the inspectors for helping him get his latest project open. He thanked Olivieri Builders for replacing older rental houses on the south end of the City.

Janet Leslie, Community Manager, American Cancer Society, thanked staff for help with putting on Relay for Life event in Nelson Park.

The Commission recessed at 7:59 p.m. and returned to open session at 8:06 p.m.
City Manager Ridley led a discussion on the proposed 2016 Operating Budget. Based on the general agreement, staff will follow-up on:

- Fire 3rd party review process with focus on timing and possible approval of changes during construction.
- Potter Playground funding for future years.
- Playscape plan will include community involvement through 2016.
- Bellows/Washington Roundabout design status.
- Accident data on Mission near new streets.

The Commission went into a closed session at 8:42 p.m. A separate set of minutes was taken for the closed session. The Commission went back into open session at 9:04 p.m.

Moved by Vice Mayor Rautanen and supported by Commissioner Kulick to adjourn the meeting at 9:05 p.m. Motion unanimously adopted.
