OLD BUSINESS

A. Downtown Historic Design Guidelines

Discussion held on taking text previously written for design guidelines and placing into more visual document. Jacob discussed process for adopting document and requested Downtown Development Board (DDB) determine how they would like to proceed in assisting businesses owners who wish to have blade signs. Additionally, he requested they review the document before taking it to the Planning Commission. Request to add the following into the document:

- Historically why blade signs were used and why they were stopped being used.
- Basic principles and aesthetics of downtown signage.
