

PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Jeff Browne
Public Information Officer
P: 989-779-5145 cell: 989-948-0480
E: jbrowne@mt-pleasant.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 4, 2017

Mt. Pleasant man arrested for Home Invasion

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. – On Dec. 4 at approximately 6:53 a.m., Mt. Pleasant Police officers responded to an illegal entry complaint in the 1100 block of West Camps Drive. The suspect entered an unlocked apartment. The suspect went through the apartment to the bedroom and shined a flashlight on the female resident. The victim awoke and confronted the suspect. The suspect then fled the scene.

Officers arrived in the area and observed a male running down the railroad tracks matching the description of the suspect that was provided. Officers attempted to stop and identify the suspect, but he continued to run for several more blocks and was taken into custody after struggling with officers.

During the investigation, officers also learned of another incident that took place earlier in the morning in the same area. In this incident, the suspect let himself into the residence, pulled the covers off the female victim and shined his flashlight on the female's body. The victim sat up in bed when the suspect fled the scene.

The suspect was identified as Charles Henry, a 33-year-old Mt. Pleasant man.

Henry was lodged at the Isabella County Jail on charges of Home Invasion-1st Degree; Sex Offenders-Failure to Comply with Registration Act; Police Officer- Assault/Resisting/Obstructing; Police Officer-Assault/Resisting/Obstructing; Lying to a Peace Officer; Breaking and Entering-Illegal Entry; and Breaking and Entering-Illegal Entry. Henry is currently held at the Isabella County Jail with a bond of $70,000/ten percent.

The Mt. Pleasant Police Department was assisted in apprehending Henry by Central Michigan University Police Department and the Isabella County Sheriff's Department.

###

