Mt. Pleasant man arrested on car larceny charges

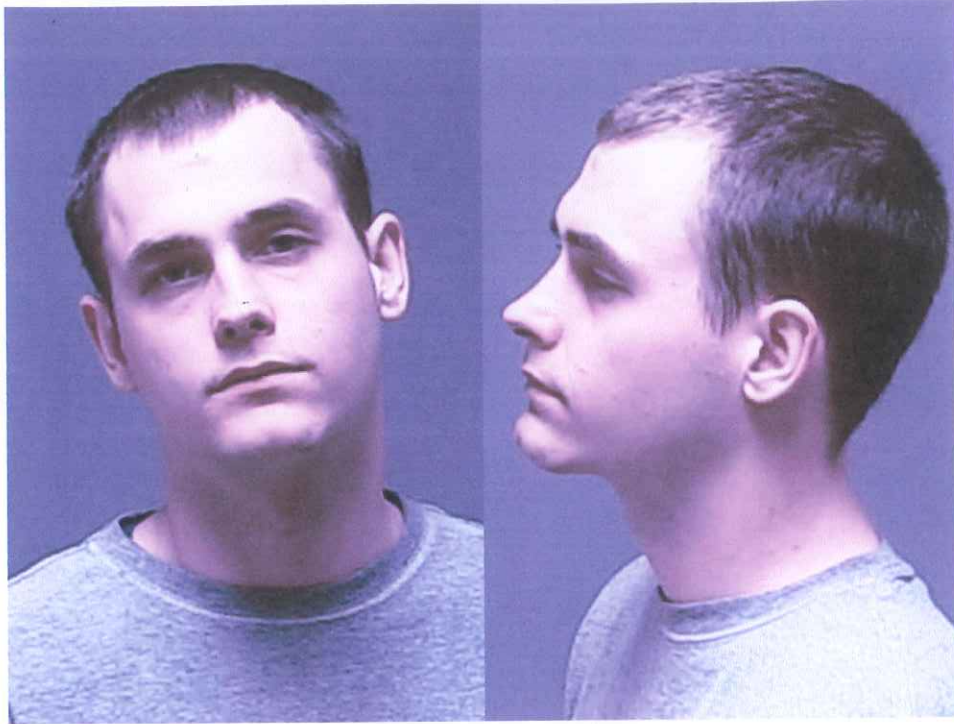

For Immediate Release

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. April 15, 2015 – The Mt. Pleasant Police Department investigated a complaint of a car larceny today in the area of Cooley and Elm streets. Officers Standen and Straus searched the area and found Zachary Riggs, a 23-year-old Mt. Pleasant man, in a vehicle. The investigation revealed that Riggs had broken into at least five vehicles and possibly more.

The investigation is ongoing as officers attempt to identify other possible victims. If your vehicle was broken into on April 14 or April 15, please call police at 989-779-5100 or Central Dispatch at 989-773-1000.

Riggs was arrested and lodged at the Isabella County Jail on a five-count misdemeanor warrant for breaking and entering in a vehicle. Bond has been set at $20,000/ten percent.
